LAST EDITION.

Death of Vice President Wilson.

MARK THE PERFECT MAN AND BEHOLD THE UPRIGHT.

For the End of That Man is Peace.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22-S A. M.-Vice President Wilson died peacefully this morning at 7:15.

HIS LAST HOURS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.-The Vice President has been gradually but almost imperceptibly growing weaker since his attack, but even up to last evening no serious fears of immediate fatal results were felt.

He received several friends yesterday and conversed with his physicians and others quite freely during the day and early part of the night. Having retired early, he awoke at midnight and spent some minutes reading from a little hymn book, and looking at photographs of his wife and son.

At 2:45 A. M., he awoke feeling badly, and especially suffering with a pain in his stomach, and a general feeling of uneasiness. He was rubbed by the watchman, and finally after thanking the man for his trouble, and remarking that he felt much better, he fell asleep, and reposed quietly till 6:45 o'clock, when he awoke feeling much better than at any time since his attack.

On awaking he looked around, and seeing that a fair day was probable, remarked, "I think we can take that ride." He washed and took his medicine, after which he lay back on the pillow seemingly exhausted, and precisely at 7:15 o'clock he quietly and without a perceptible movement breathed his last.
Those in attendance did not observe any change in his condition till he had entirely ceased to breathe.

Postmaster General Jewell, who has been a constant attendant at the bedside of the Vice President, was the first to arrive after his death. The Postmaster General was soon followed by Chief Justice Waite and Postmaster Burt, of Boston, who happened to be in the city.

Sergeant-at-Arms French, who once preceded to have the body laid out in the Vice President's room, and sent telegrams announcing the sad event to Governor Gaston, of Massachusetts, the Mayor of Boston, and Mr. Wilson's family.

The President was informed of the death of Vice President Wilson at once, and called a special meeting of the Cabinet at nine o'clock, at which were all the members except Mr. Robeson.

A meeting of Senators now in the city was also held at noon, to take proper action on the occasion.

The flags on the different Government buildings were at once lowered to half-mast on the announcement of the Vice President's death.

THE POST MORTEM.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.-A post-mortem examination of the body of Vice President Wilson is now being made, but has not yet been concluded. The following surgeons are making the examination:

Dr. Baxter, Surgeon General Barnes, Assistant Surgeon J. S. Billing, Drs. C.
M. Ford, F. A. Ashford, G. L. Magruder, O. O. Stanton, Robert Fletcher, Dr. D.
S. C. Smith, and others.

The result has not been announced, but it is understood that death was caused by the bursting of a blood vessel near the brain. The brain weighed 4 3/4 ounces.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

The official announcement of the death of the Vice President was made this afternoon as follows:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 22, 1875.

It is with profound sorrow that the President has to announce to the people of the United States the death of Vice President Henry Wilson, who died in the Capitol of the Nation, this morning.

The eminent station of the deceased, his high character, his long career in the service of his State and of the Union, his devotion to the cause of freedom and the ability which he brought to the discharge of every duty stand out prominently, and are indisputably pressed in the hearts and affections of the American people.

In testimony of respect for this distinguished citizen and faithful public servant, the various Departments of the Government will be closed on the day of the funeral, and the Executive Mansion and all the Executive Departments in Washington will be draped with badges of mourning for thirty days.

The Secretaries of War and of the Navy will issue an order that appropriate military and naval honors be rendered to the memory of one whose virtues and services will long be borne in recollection by a grateful nation.

By the President. U. S. GRANT.
[Signed] HAMILTON FISH, Sec'y of State.

Acquisition of Territory

FROM MEXICO TO THE UNITED STATES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.-The Chronicle publishes this morning some startling information to the effect that a treaty has been agreed upon between Ledro, President of Mexico, and President Grant, for the cession of a large area of Mexican territory to the United States, upon condition that our Government will assume the indebtedness of Mexico to citizens of the United States, and pay them.

The Mexican States to be ceded are Lower California, Sonora, Sinaloa, Chihuahua, Durango, and possibly Yohu-hualtepec. The treaty will be submitted to the Senate for ratification immediately upon the assembling of Congress.

The ironclads Monadnock and Comanche are ordered to get ready for sea at once. Admiral Rogers went East a short time since to obtain personal instructions for the guidance of the Pacific Squadron, which will rendezvous as soon as possible on the coast of the Western States named.

The Chronicle also states that it is believed that President Grant, Cameron, Butler and others in their confidence have been buying up Mexican claims for from 15 to 20 cents on the dollar, and will of course make fortunes thereby.

Fresh Fires.

AT HARRISBURG, PA.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 22.-The Harrisburg Park Stables were totally destroyed

Schoenck, of Schenckville, in this county, in returning home, from which he had been absent but a few hours, found his wife murdered and lying on the floor, and the home robbed of all valuables.
The deed was committed by traps, and there is great excitement. Officers are now hunting for the perpetrators.

At Richmond, Va., on Saturday, General Bradley T. Johnson, who had been further damage. The trouble grew out of a contested seat in the Senate.

Label Suit.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 22.-The Republican of Sunday morning contains a card from A.
L. January, a prominent wholesale grocer of this city, stating that he intends filing suit against the Chicago Tribune for $100,000 damages for defamation of character, said defamation being contained in a special dispatch in that sheet from this city, charging that January was identified with the whiskey ring.

He Was Much Affected.

EVANSVILLE, IND. Nov. 22.-Bingham and his bondsmen came down on the train last evening. At Patoka a perfect ovation awaited G. B. Bingham, the patron saint of the ring. The whole town was at the depot, women, babes, and all. Bingham made a speech, stating that the people there knew him better than anywhere, and would find him the same honest man as before.
When the revelations were made they would find him innocent. He was much affected.

Preparing for War.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.-Commander G. H. Cooper, of the United States Navy, arrived here Friday, and it is known, beyond the possibility of a Crookedness-Dedication.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.-There was great excitement in the Milwaukee whiskey ring Saturday-caused by the arrest of Receiving Agent S. J. Conklin, brother-in-law of Keyes, Chairman of the State Republican Committee for alleged complicity in the whiskey ring frauds. It is believed Hindskopf, of the committee, can identify certain documents, implicating Conklin, who, it is supposed, bled the ring very freely. He, Hindskopf, alone, is believed, having come down to an aggregate of nearly $100,000.
There is a disposition manifested among

Two young men named Chas. Anderson and Clay Rouser, while hunting on Saturday last, attempted to put powder in their gun, and a piece of wad remaining in the barrel set fire to the powder, causing the powder-flask to explode, severely burning Anderson's hair, eyes and clothes. Rouser was also burned, but very slightly.

About 9 o'clock last Saturday night, a cutting affray occurred in front of Geo.
Frank's saloon, between two men named Weekly and Putman. Weekly cut Putman once in the arm and twice in the back, with a large penknife. Putman being unarmed could make no defense, and was being badly used up, when a man named John Murphy struck Weekly in the back of the head with a billy, knocking him down and making a ghastly but not dangerous wound. Putman's injuries are slight, being flesh wounds.
